Bring Your Own Pass: Ikon or Dolomites SuperSki

The Dolomites is a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the Southern Tyrol area of the Northern Italian Alps. The mountain scenery is breathtaking. The vast connected ski resort network known as the Sella Ronda is served by more than 200 lifts, trams, and gondolas. Val Gardena, located in the heart of the Dolomites, is known for its supreme snowmaking and groomed-to-perfection slopes to smooth out any fluctuations in natural snowfall. We'll be based in the city of Selva Di Val Gardena, the perfect central location to access all the resorts around the Sella Ronda. The Tyrolian culture is endearing, the architecture and landscape are beautiful, and the regional wine offerings are plentiful.

What may set this apart from other ski trips is the food. You'll be treated to delicious, voluminous Southern Tyrolian breakfasts and dinners with an Austrian influence and a hint of Italy. Huts on the mountains offer incredible lunches in intimate settings. Wine lovers will love the locally sourced selections. Apres ski is a blast. There's shopping and night life, too. Ski shops are within walking distance for rentals and repairs.

We'll be staying at Hotel Antares with lots of amenities, including indoor pool, sauna, hot tub, gym, and more with a great location downtown just a short walk to/from the lift.

In Venice we'll be staying at Hotel Santa Ciara at the center of Venice's transportation hub, right on the canal.
